

Diary entry for class 7

A diary entry is a personal account of the most important and pressing event that took place on a given day in the life of a person. Personal emotions are projected on paper regarding sometimes important that happened in the day. Events are recalled by the writer and secrecy is maintained as the information and emotions involved are too personal to be exhibited.

What is the format for a diary entry

Format for diary entry is not difficult, It is very easy to understand or writing let's see:

Day, Date

Time

Salutation (Dear Diary)

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Signature/ Name of

The writer

Diary entry format for class 7

Day, Date

Time

Salutation (Dear Diary)

.....

.....

.....

.....

Signature/ Name of The writer

Performdigi

While writing a Diary entry remember:

- Put day, date and time on the extreme left-hand top corner of the page, one beneath the other.
- Write down the key points you would like to celebrate.
- Start writing after leaving one line from the extreme left corner of the page.
- It is written in the first person.
- Thoughts are gathered over the theme and an emotional description regarding the same is provided.
- Repetition of the same words/ lines is avoided and grammatical accuracy is maintained.

Solved Examples

Example 1

A recent visit to a blind school in your city has made extremely sympathetic and thoughtful for the need of helping the physically challenged. Express your thoughts in the form of a diary entry.

Thursday, Apr. 22nd 20xx

9.00 p.m.

Today's visit to the XYZ Blind School has opened my eyes to the problems of the blind people. For the first time, I came to know that the problem is more serious for those who have lost their vision later in life than those who were born blind, as they had taken more time in getting adjusted in society. But it really is a brave front that these people are putting up. The school uses special techniques to equip students with education. They try to sharpen their other senses, such as touch hearing and smell in order to understand the world around them. Their books are printed in a special type of script, Braille, which uses risen out dots to help a blind student ready by touching the lines on the page. Another lesson that the blind students have taught me, is that nothing is impossible if one has the will to do it.

Pawan Saini

Performdigi

Diary entry for class 7

A recent visit to a blind school in your city has made extremely sympathetic and thoughtful for the need of helping the physically challenged. Express your thoughts in the form of a diary entry.

Day, date

Thursday, Apr. 22nd 20xx

Time

9.00 p.m.

Body

Today's visit to the XYZ Blind School has opened my eyes to the problems of the blind people. For the first time, I came to know that the problem is more serious for those who have lost their vision later in life than those who were born blind, as they had taken more time in getting adjusted in society. But it really is a brave front that these people are putting up. The school uses special techniques to equip students with education. They try to sharpen their other senses, such as touch hearing and smell in order to understand the world around them. Their books are printed in a special type of script, Braille, which uses risen out dots to help a blind student ready by touching the lines on the page. Another lesson that the blind students have taught me, is that nothing is impossible if one has the will to do it.

Name

Pawan Saini

Example 2

Share your plans in the form of a diary entry, regarding the forthcoming half-yearly exams.

Tuesday, Aug. 10th, 20xx

8.00 p.m.

It's only a month from today for the half-yearly exams to start. The previous terminals had not been a great success for me. I must plan properly if I want to do it nicely this time and wash away the blemish of my previous scoring. I have made a provision in my time-table for an increase in the duration of self-study for every subject from tomorrow onwards. Mathematics and History have been a sore to my results, hence I must give them at least 2 hours each day to finish the syllabus before time, and I think taking personal coaching for my difficulties in these two subjects will also help. I must also get some good help books having a good question bank to further sharpen my skills in all the subjects. Getting up early in the morning seems difficult for me, so I just take eat one rest in the afternoon, skip games mostly and study late till midnight to make up for it.

Performdigi

Worksheet or Practice questions

- Your long-time fast friend developed some misunderstandings and is also not allowing you to clear up the matter. His/her neglect is making you worried and depressed. Write a diary entry, expressing your feelings about the situation.
- Amit/Amita used to be your classmate in class 5. However, for some reason, she had to shift abroad with her parents. Recently, you received a friend request from him/her on Facebook. You accepted the request and ended up chatting for hours. Now, write your feelings about meeting a long lost friend and how you wish to keep this friendship intact.

