Subject and predicate definition for kids.
Definition: The person or thing we speak about in a sentence is the Subject.
What we speak about the person or thing in a sentence is the Predicate.

How to find a subject and predicate in a sentence?
In a sentence, we name a person or thing and say something about that person or thing.

The part of a sentence that tells something about the subject is called the predicate. The predicate contains a verb. The predicate can be a word or a group of words.

For Example:
1. Leena loves to play the piano.
2. Everyday is a new day.
3. Wisdom is a priceless gift of God to man.
4. Crocodiles have more teeth than humans.
5. My brother has read all the harry potter books.
