

Essay on Myself

Seven billion people are on Earth, and everyone is different from everyone else. There is nothing but purpose in this world. Everything has a purpose. Humans are the most beautiful creation on earth, and each one is unique. So, writing about me, I am here to express what I see, what I experience and what I plan for my life. I try to be modest, loving, dedicated, hardworking and honest.

My Family and My Childhood

I come from a middle-class family in Bihar, I am Naresh Shukla. No one comes to the earth without the support of family and friends. In fact, whatever you decide to do, it's only for your family. My father is a well-known businessman in our neighbourhood.

My mother is a doctor. They both love their job. What I learned from my parents was the importance of time, honesty, hard work and dedication.

We are three brothers and sisters. Being the firstborn I am the most responsible to my brothers and sisters. I want to guide and care for my other siblings. We are all in the same school. Reading is my passion.

I am an avid reader of novels and history books as I have a keen interest in Indian History and architecture. I love reading books about the rich history and civilization of ancient India. As a child before I grew up, I used to listen to stories from my grandmother, and this has a lasting effect on me.

My education

I attend the best school in my city. I'm in 10th grade right now. I feel very happy to be a part of this wonderful school with good friends, a loving and supportive teacher, and good school management. I have unusual skills in some subjects and I am very weak in a few.

My Power

Compared to courses, I was able to do sports. so I am the captain of my football team in the classroom. In my school, I am the best soccer player. Apart from that, I am also a fast runner and I love sports. I am a professional swimmer.

My parents' guidance had a significant impact on my behaviour. I believe I am telling the truth and I am trying my best not to lie. My parents taught me that if I made a mistake, I should own up to it. I make every effort to do so. I know how to stay happy in all situations. "Happiness is not something you find; it is something you make," I believe.

I'm also a big fan of things and I like to risk them. I like to do something creative without doing old things over and over again. One of my favourite things to do is to learn new stuff.

For this, I love reading a few children's magazines where there are a variety of encouraging stories. They taught me a higher moral lesson. I am a self-assured individual who can communicate effectively. I always try to talk to everyone according to his need so that I can understand people.

My Weakness

Just as everyone has weaknesses, so do you. I'm a little lazy in some places I don't like. When I play time, I spend most of my time there which is not a good habit, but I try my best to overcome my weaknesses.

My Desire for Life

Everyone has a desire for life. The purpose or ambition of a person's inner desire. No one can do anything on earth without a purpose. Therefore, we all need to be very committed to our purpose in life.

Without careful planning, right from the start, one cannot be on the right track. A person should set goals according to his or her broader career goals.

I have studied biology and will sit for a competitive entrance exam to enter the prestigious medical college.

I will make every effort to be a responsible and honest student. After that I will be a qualified doctor. I will do all that to be a good doctor and I will be honest about it.

Conclusion

These are all the things that expose me. Or no one can be described by a few sets of sentences. One needs to give oneself a command before writing something about one's life. Life is meant to be lived with zeal and visibility in order to do good for other people. Keeping this goal in mind, I have always dreamed of serving my people in whatever position I can.
